NATIONAL CORVETTE MUSEUM (NCM) AMBASSADOR

- No report.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT:

- Freddie stated that she has applications for membership to the National Corvette Museum. The museum depends on donations as well as memberships and sale of merchandise. Remember that your membership is tax deductible.
- She thanked George and Pat Frymyer for sitting with her at the Dragon's game. There were 37 members who attended the game and 21 Corvettes on display.
- Thirty Corvettes made up the photo shoot with the Spectra Jets at Xenia Air Park in Springfield. Thanks to Julley (Larry and Brenda Metcalf's daughter) and Lee (Bob and Carol Sledge's son) for volunteering to do the photography.

- Bob had samples of the pictures. He brought a 10" x 20" lustre picture mounted on a gator board and a semi-gloss on a matte board. He will send out an e-mail with ordering information.
- Larry Kopa motioned that a 10" x 24" picture on the gator board be obtained for Bud's. Seconded by Gary Stiens. Motion carried.
- Dean Tavener motioned that a 10" x 20" picture on the gator board also be obtained for Giovanni's. Gary Stiens seconded the motion. Motion carried.
- Freddie thanked the sixteen members (10 Corvettes) who made the trip to Fort Thomas.
- As of tonight, she has 12 Corvettes participating in the Kettering Holiday at Home Parade. If you would like to be in the parade, see Freddie after the meeting.
- Freddie will send out an e-mail requesting a volunteer until the end of the year as social chairperson. If no one volunteers, she will make the decision.

OLD BUSINESS

- Carol Tavener asked if anyone knows where she can obtain the license plate holders as she is running low on stock. Suggestion was made to check with John Vanscoy and Tom Hendricks. Tom Murph will also check some websites.
- Tom Murph thanked those who bought tickets for the Troy Corvette raffle. One hundred eighty tickets will be sold. The next raffle is September 26, 2014.

New Business

- Freddie said that Tony would like to host another street fair with Corvettes possibly for next June. She asked members to think of ways the Club could make money for our charities.
- Terry Weldon had a sample of a flag with the GDCC logo and members name that can mount on a stand. He sells the flags for $25.00. If you would like to order one, let Terry know.
- Jim and Sandy Morris attended the 33rd Annual NCM Homecoming on July 19. Their car came in second for the Drive and Shine C5 Stock Class.
- Tom Brooks suggested a possible Club trip to the Hollywood Racino as a social event.

50/50 drawing won by Bob Sledge: $28.00.

Mike Jones moved the meeting adjourn; seconded by Pat Frymyer.
Meeting adjourned.

Respectively submitted,
Terri Kopa
