President's Corner:

Old Business

- Freddie said that she was contacted by Grant with the Dayton Dragons. June 1, 2019 is the date the Club will show their cars. The game is at 7:00 p.m. with the South Bend Cubs. Grant is holding 50 tickets for the Club. Tickets are $12.00 each and must be paid 60 days in advance of the game. Any member participating is asked to have their car at the stadium between 5:00 -5:30 p.m. Freddie will send out an e-mail the first of the year with information.

New Business

- Freddie reminded everyone that December is the month we accept suggestions for organizations to which we make a donation. The following organizations were motioned and approved:

Alzheimer's Association
American Cancer Society
Dayton Veteran's Volunteer Services
Hope for the Warriors
Kentucky Trooper Island
National Corvette Museum

St. Vincent DePaul Society
St. Jude Research Hospital
USO
Volunteers of America at the Dayton VA

- Freddie also said that we seem to forget the elderly that live on a limited budget and some have to decide on whether to spend their money on needed medications or food. Some may not even have a way to get to a local food bank. She contacted Fairhaven Church, Centerville OH and they indicated that there are at least five elderly that could use help. The Club approved that 10 gift cards to Kroger's be provided to help 10 elderly people.
- Freddie is planning an E-board meeting in early February.
- She asked George Frymyer to conduct the 50/50 drawing which was won by Roger Winterbotham. Roger won $41.00.

Carl Durbin motioned the meeting adjourn; seconded by George Frymyer.

Respectfully submitted,
Terri Kopa
