President's Corner:

Old Business

- Freddie held up the flyer and dash plaque for the Club's car show on July 8. She asked each member to take flyers to pass out. She also reminded that door prizes and Chinese auction items are needed.
 - Judy will update with more information at the April meeting.
 - We all need to thank Bob Sledge for designing the flyer and dash plaque.
- Reminded members that different club car shows are listed in the newsletter and on the GDCC website. Now is the time to mark your calendars for those you would like to attend.

New Business

- Freddie said that she received an invitation from Fisher House. They are holding their annual fund raiser on April 28 from 5:45 p.m. – 10:00 p.m. at the National Museum of the Air Force. Cost is $90.00 per person and includes wine tasting, entertainment, food stations, and live and silent auctions. If anyone is interested in attending, see her after the meeting.
- Mary Beth Burke thanked the club for the beautiful flowers.
- Steve Stoker indicated that the Memphis Belle that has been under renovation will be on display at the National Museum of the Air Force from May 17 – 19.

A 50/50 drawing was not conducted.

Mike Jones motioned the meeting adjourn; seconded by Steve Stoker.

Thank you to Freddie and Pat Frymyer for taking meeting notes for me.

Respectfully submitted,
Terri Kopa

Monthly Meeting
We meet the third Wednesday of each month at 7PM, at Giovanni's, 215 W. Main St., Fairborn. All visitors are welcome.

Age Activated Attention Deficit Disorder (AAADD) – This is how most of my days go!

Yes, this is the way most of my days go around here. I know that some of you can relate to this, but I wanted the rest of you to know just how it is when you retire!

I decided to wash my Corvette today, so I started toward the garage when I noticed that there is mail on the hall table. I decide that I had better go through the mail before I wash the Vette, and that's when I laid my car keys down on the table and put the junk mail in the trash can under the table. As I did that I noticed that the trash can was full.

So, I decide to put the bills back on the table and take out the trash first, but then I thought that since I'm going to be near the mailbox when I take out the trash anyway, I may as well pay the bills first.

I take my checkbook off the table and see that there is only one check left. My extra checks are in my desk in the study, so I go to my desk where I find the cup of coffee that I had been drinking earlier. I'm going to look for my checks, but first I need to put the coffee aside so that I don't accidentally knock it over.

I see that my coffee is cold, so I decide that I should put it in the microwave to give it a warm up. As I head toward the kitchen with the coffee, a vase of flowers on the counter catches my eye—they need to be watered.

I set the coffee down on the counter and I discover my reading glasses that I've been searching for all morning. I decide I'd better put them back on my desk, but first I've got to water the flowers.

I set the glasses back down on the counter, fill a container with water, and suddenly I spot the TV remote. Someone had left it on the kitchen table. I realize that tonight, when we go to watch TV, we will be looking for the remote, but nobody will remember that it's on the kitchen table, so I decided to put it back in the den where it belongs, but first I'll water those darn flowers.

I splash some water on the flowers, but most of it spills on the floor, it figures! So, I set the remote back down on the table, get some towels and wipe up the spill.

Then I head back down the hall trying to remember what I was planning to do earlier. At the end of the day; the Vette still isn't washed. The bills aren't paid. There is a cold cup of coffee still sitting on the counter. Those darn flowers are now starting to wilt since they didn't get watered. There's still only one check in my checkbook. I can't find the remote. I can't find my glasses. And, what hurts the most is that I don't remember what I did with the car keys!

Then, when trying to figure out why nothing got done today, I'm absolutely baffled because I know that I was busy all day long and I'm really worn out. I realize that this is a genuine problem, and I'll try to get some help for it, but first I'll check my e-mail.

Do me a favor, will you? Forward this message to close friends you know, because I don't remember to whom it has been sent. Don't laugh – if this isn't you yet, your day is coming! And if I have had this article in the newsletter before.... well, now you know why you're seeing it again.
